

Josefine Klougart's

ON DARKNESS

WILL BE PART OF THE EXHIBITION

BOOK WORK OF THE YEAR 2013

Every year the Book-craft Association singles out the best of the books nominated for Best Book Work of the Year, and for the year 2013 they have chosen both the special edition and the ordinary edition of Josefine Klougart's praised novel On Darkness.

Head of the committee Christian Kaaber on the aim of their selection:

"To show and explain how well this type of work can be done by accentuating a number of books among several nominated as exemplary and inspiring (...)
Fascinating approaches, extraordinary craft and innovative promotion will presented and hopefully they will delight and inspire"

Both editions of On Darkness will be exhibited at the Royal Library in Copenhagen from and after the 16th of June 2014 and until the middle of August. After this the books will be part of a travelling exhibition going to Frankfurt am Main and Leipzig. Furthermore the books will be part of another travelling exhibition going to Stockholm, Torshavn and several places in Denmark.

There are still a few copies of the special edition left for sale via www.josefineklougart.com. On this website you can also read about the novel and the purpose of making this beautiful special edition which is now also praised by professionals for its focus on bookbinding as a craft.
